People and Places

Frank's Villa Capri will be having its formal opening as you read this column. Located at 2700 Redondo Beach Blvd., in Gardena, the new addition to the Villa Capri is the culmination of a lot of planning and hard work by Jim Azzariti. The beautiful Villa Capri specializes in Italian cuisine and everything on the menu is available to take out if you wish. Jim is inaugurating a Chuck Wagon, which is the first in this area. From the prime rib can be had for only $1.95 with all the other good things that go with it. The $1.95 is for all you can eat so come with a good appetite. The Karl Kay Trio will furnish music for your further dinner enjoyment and dispensing your favorite beverages just the way you want them are Oman Brashears, Frank Morrell, and Keith Harnen. Helping Jim in the operation of the Villa Capri are his wife, Fannie, and three lovely daughters, Judith, Janet, and Angela. Jim can't lose with this combine. His gracious wife and daughters have been working side by side with him to get the Villa Capri ready for this opening and all of them will be on the job to see that you have a wonderful time.

ALAMITOS # FIRST ST. LONG BEACH

Right down in the village just walking distance practically for City and Surfers, in the Hollywood Riviera, west Torrance, and Redondo, is the Ra Von Supper Club. Always fine food from the continental buffet and good company in the bar. You can count on a wonderful welcome and a pleasant evening at Jerry and Leo's Ra Von Supper Club.

Cool is the word for the Open Hearth. If this hot weather gets you down, drop in for a picker-upper at the Open Hearth on Hawthorne Blvd., just off Pacific Coast Hwy. Hal Mosher is behind the bar during the day and has our vote as one of the most dapper cocktail prescriptionists in the area. Hal says it's easy to look cool and calm with that air conditioning on his side.

Dinner patrons at the Plush Horse, where fine food is served with a flourish, discover that even the simplest dishes are expertly prepared and imaginatively served. Newly added entrees on the fabulous menu are charcoal broiled Catalina swordfish steak and jumbo shrimps saute d'ail. Complimenting the entrees at the Plush Horse are zesty garnishes. John DeRyk is executive chef at this City and Surf showplace.

And speaking of showplaces, the Gadabout has bragged so extensively about downtown Torrance's elegant Caprino's that the mistress of the household has announced that I'm to take her to dinner at Caprino's come this Saturday night. This is the kind of order that will be a pleasure to obey. So the Lobster a la Theridor en casserole, the lady's favorite will find another Caprino fan. Truly, if you haven't yet visited Caprino's make it soon.

George Foster, affable host and owner of the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes is collecting many compliments for the way he has refurbished the main dining area with new, comfortable leather booths and more aquariums. Two huge aquariums, containing 300 gallons of crystal-clear water and some 200 beautiful tropical fish have just been installed in the center of the dining room. A dramatic effect is achieved after dark at the Marineland Restaurant when these picturesque fish tanks are illuminated.

The Ginza on West Slauson is proud of the fact that 100 per cent choice Occidental Kansas City Beef is served in its traditional and authentic Sukiyaki. At the Ginza an added bonus to the wonderful cuisine is the superb floor show. Native Japanese talent is used in every act. Hanayage does the exquisite classical Japanese dances, Chieko sings the haunting Japanese songs. Mary Matsuyama brings patrons a Japanese mambo and petite Bando weds and Orient and the Occident in a delightful samisen accompanied vocal blending Japanese and American lyrics. American rhythm is danced by the Tokyo Beauties Hiromi and Kaoru. Bob Hart emceeds the gala entertainment and the Gil

B Quartette furnish enjoyable dance music. If you ever around East 7th St., in Los Angeles, there is another Ginza with an entirely different authentic Japanese floor show and the same fine cuisines.

For the finest Oriental food right here in your own backyard stop at Ding How's and try one of the eight different varieties of Chop Suey together with a wide choice of other Chinese delicacies. Ding How's has a private banquet room for parties and also specializes in take out orders. If you can't bring the family take a Chinese dinner treat home to them.
